

LECTURES ON HISTORY.

MISS CLARKE, from Philadelphia, will give a course of Historical Lectures, in this place, comprising the interval from the Creation to the termination of the American revolutionary war in 1783.

These Lectures will be illustrated by means of Charts, upon a novel and interesting plan; by Maps and Diagrams, and by a great variety of splendid Paintings, representing the ancient and modern costumes of different nations, groups, &c.

A system of teaching, from the Charts, has been arranged and classes may receive private lessons at suitable hours during the day.

An introductory Lecture will be given on THURSDAY, (tomorrow,) evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Town Hall, which Ladies and Gentlemen are invited to attend, gratis.

The course will be comprised in sixteen Lectures, and will commence on Monday evening next, to be continued 4 evenings in a week.

Single tickets for the course at 3 dollars each, may be obtained of Mr. S. Butler or E. Turner. Also, tickets for families of six persons at $12.
